>So who really started the real trouble when Michael dunn went into a convenient store and his intentions was to be in n out of the store and probably less than a minute so how loud and irritating what's the boom car that was probably like ice picks being jammed into the eardrum to Michael Dunn to where he couldn't deal with it for just a minute does he asked boom car punks to turn down there sound war machine which state took as an insult and turned it up as loud as it would go that was telling Michael Dunn the punks had no consideration for his safety comfort or well-being which probably to Michael Dunn what's the behavior of hardcore gangsters who probably have terrorized hundreds of thousands of innocent Americans with their war sound machine sound machine which if the cops had pre vented these punks boom cars in the first place Michael Dunn would not be sitting in a horrible cell possibly facing on false charges of never getting out for the rest of his life which is the strongest case of cop entrapment 777 .201 Florida Statute and also cop a meeting in a betting criminals 895 of the Florida Statutes and violation of United States Code Title 18 .241, 242 the Florida Constitution article 2 Section 7 demands that excessive noise will not be tolerated the cops took an oath to support and defend the Constitution Florida Statute 876 these boom car punks are American enemies under 876 Florida Statute which is sdecision Michael Dunn was a out of town visitor attending his son's wedding I'm wondering if the witnesses who plans were broke down the tag number would be willing to testify how horrible the sound of the boom car was and will the cops take pictures of the sound system that was in the vehicle and will the cops take a very strong truth serum to find out if they're in fact they found a gun in the car and ditched it and if the vehicle was that loud what's the excuse for the cops not getting it first so do these boom cars do with a damn well please in Jacksonville Florida even though 30.15 of the Florida Statutes demands the sheriff arrest the punks and take away their vehicle under 932 contraband it is the duty of the prosecutor under 60.05 the Florida Statutes to get rid of these American war machine terrorist what happened to the day when innocent Americans could live in peace not having to hear boom cars and home theater systems which are really neighbor torture systems you got your civil rights scammers who are trying to make this into a racial thing through dark tinted windows on a Friday night when drug dealing is the heaviest how could you see into the windows and why wouldn't a people in the boom car turn down the sound instead of turning it up all the way like it was a sedistic fun so will anybody look at the truth of who started the original trouble which is the cops who allowed the boom car punk in the first place when did the district attorney who look the other way on the spoon car punks and the Florida governor who could under Florida Statute 14 call out the military on these punks and take away their vehicles forever and make them become life and make them B come life long slaves to the wonderful veterans injured in any American War non medical in nature under community service
