PANAMA CITY -- A woman hit by an SUV last week died Wednesday morning at Bay Medical Center, according to police.

Kelly Tuggle, 38, stepped out in front of a Nissan Murano driving west on 15th Street near Fountain Avenue around 8 p.m. on March 7, according to a press release from the Panama City Police Department. The driver, 46-year-old James Clark, is not charged.

Police are still investigating. Anyone with information is asked to contact Cpl. Michael Streichert at 850-872-3112 or report it anonymously to CrimeStoppers by calling 850-785-TIPS (8477).
